

Just Starting Genealogy?

The Durham Region Branch Ontario Genealogy Society is presenting a spring workshop series to help begin your search for ancestors.

There is a series of three workshops. This is the first time the Branch will offer workshops at the office in Oshawa. The workshops start at the absolute beginner level and increase in depth as the series continues. There is limited enrolment to provide ample opportunity for attendee questions. Enrol in one or two or ALL. There are discounts for registering for a complete series and for OGS members. Low introductory pricing! Register soon for this first series!
